BOARD AGENDA ITEM

SUBJECT: Child Development Training Consortium Instructional Agreement for 2007-08

OVERVIEW:
The Child Development Training Consortium provides reimbursement to students, who are enrolled in child development or general education courses, and currently working in the childcare field The Instructional Agreement continues the contractual relationship that the Yosemite Community College District and Palomar College District had for 2006-07. The program has contracted with the college since the early 1990's.

DISCUSSION:
Palomar College will receive 750 units for $18,750 for 2007-08 year (same amount for instructional units as last year). Professional Growth funds are not included in this years Instructional Agreement. This contract is valid from July 1, 2007 to June 30, 2008.

BUDGET IMPLICATIONS:

The funds total $18,750.00 for the 07-08 year. All funds will be expended on or before June 30, 2008 in order to comply with the agreement.

RECOMMENDATION

Please approve for 2007-08, District Instructional Agreement for the Child Development Training Consortium agreement between Palomar College and Yosemite Community College District. Please sign attached Instructional Agreements (2) and return to the address listed on the cover page.