Education Code Section 78300;
Title 5 Section 55160

The District shall maintain a community services program that meets the civic, vocational, literacy, health, homemaking, technical, and general education needs and desires of the community. Such classes generally include, but are not limited to the fields of music, drama, art, handicraft, science, literature, nature study, nature contacting, aquatic sports, and athletics.

Community services courses shall be open for admission to adults and to minors who can benefit from the programs.

No General Fund monies may be expended to develop or maintain community services courses. Students involved in community services courses shall be charged a fee not to exceed the cost of offering and maintaining the courses. Courses may also be offered for remuneration by contract or with contributions or donations of individuals or groups.
