2       AP 2105        Election of Student Trustee

3       Reference:

4               Education Code Section 72023.5

5       The President of the Associated Student Government (ASG) shall be elected by a plurality vote
6       of the students who voted in the election and will serve as the Student Trustee. All members of 7       the student body may vote. The ASG President will be elected in accordance with the ASG
8       bylaws. Normally, the election will be conducted during the spring semester and will be 9       completed in time for the ASG President to take office by June 1.

10       The student body may recall the ASG President who shall then cease to be the Student
11       Trustee. The recall process will be conducted in accordance with the ASG bylaws.

12       Upon notice of an impeachment, the Superintendent/President may conduct an investigation to 13       determine if the impeachment was executed in bad faith. The Superintendent/President may,
14       within twenty (20) school days of such a determination, call a special election. The special
15       election will be conducted in accordance with ASG bylaws. No special election will be called 16       within thirty (30) days of a regularly scheduled election for the ASG President.
