

MISSION STATEMENTS

Palomar College

The mission of Palomar College is to provide the best lower-division collegiate education and the best academic preparation for the world of work available anywhere. We exist as an institution to enable our students to realize and achieve their goals both as individuals and as members of their communities and to become responsible citizens of an increasingly interdependent world.

We seek to achieve this purpose through five interrelated themes that define our commitment to excellence in education:

Empowerment. We seek to empower students to formulate and realize educational goals, which will promote their personal growth and facilitate their full participation in a rapidly changing world.

Learning. We invite and assist students to master a core of knowledge and skills that they need in order to pursue more advanced learning at other educational institutions, in the world of work, or for personal growth and responsible citizenship.

Evaluation. We evaluate the relevant skills and knowledge of all of our students to guide them toward meaningful and productive educational experiences patterned to develop their abilities as effectively as their preparation allows. We will evaluate our own performance in terms of our contribution to student learning and success.

Discovery. We constantly seek to discover better ways to empower our students to learn and to grow. We are a learning institution in both our object and our method; we will assist our students to discover what they need and want to know; and we will be a force for innovation so that we may discover how to empower them to learn more effectively and efficiently.

Growth. We intend to grow each year in our ability to accomplish our mission. But we will never confuse growth in revenue or enrollment with growth in quality. We exist as an institution to provide the highest quality of education to each student who comes to us. We will use our talents and resources effectively to serve our students.

Administrative Services Office

Administrative Services is dedicated to the creation and demonstration of a new community-based concept of support services. Our mission consists of three interrelated parts: Service, Economic, and Social.
