

November 17, 2010

GIS Day Open House

4:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. Geocaching Treasure Hunt (NS Building Lobby)

- Learn how to use a recreational GPS to find hidden treasures around the Palomar College campus, and win prizes!

5:15 p.m. - 5:45 p.m. Facility Tour (NS 127)

- Tour the Palomar College GIS laboratory.
- Try out user-friendly online GIS activities.
- Learn about the GIS Certificate/Degree Program at Palomar College.

6:00 p.m. - 6:50 p.m. GIS Application Presentations (NS 135)

- See how industry professionals are using GIS to respond to crimes and fires.

7:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m. Questions and Answers, Closing (NS135)

- Ask industry professionals about their training, job responsibilities, and work experience.

7:30 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. Poster Session and Reception (NS Building Lobby)

- Mingle with students, instructors, industry professionals, or community members who make up our GIS community.
- Talk with past GIS internship students, learn about their projects, and see how they have used GIS in their studies.
- Enjoy refreshments and drinks.

The National Science Foundation

Carl D. Perkins Career Technical Education Act

www.gisday.com