

LEARNING COMMUNITY WORKSHEET SPRING 2010

Please submit this completed Learning Community worksheet along with a completed copy of your narrative, and accompanying Schedule Information Sheets (SIS), to Jennifer Martin, Division Secretary, Arts, Media, Business & Computing Systems, no later than: Thursday, May 7, 2009.

What is a Learning Community?

A Learning Community is an enriched learning experience linking different courses within the Palomar College Catalog around a central theme or question.

Title of your Learning Community:

Theme:

Participants in your Learning Community:

Name

Department/Program

Extension

Linked courses in your Learning Community:

Course Name	Time	Days	Room	Instructor	Units	Enrollment Cap	Enrollment Wait List

Attention ADAs: Please include the following standard note in every class that is part of a learning community. "Class Number XXXXX is part of a Learning Community. Enrollment in other linked classes is required. For a complete description, see the Learning Community section of this Class Schedule."

Enrollment Limit for Learning Community: _____

NOTE: Enrollment limit is based on the lowest CAP of the linked classes.

Total Units: _____

If you have any questions,

please
e-mail Jennifer Martin at:

jmartin@palomar.edu

or call extension 2154
Arts, Media Business, and Computing Systems Division