

Shakespeare Lecture Series

Instructor: Christine Barkley, M.A.

15, 45-minute videos

Produced by Palomar College

Introduction to the life, times, background, poems, and plays of William Shakespeare.

Program #1: Introduction to Shakespeare

This video provides an introduction to Shakespeare and the two dominant world views in the Renaissance.

Program #2: *Richard II – Introductory Material

This video provides an introduction to Richard II, including the overall themes and structure of the play.

Program #3: *Richard II – Structure, Speeches, and Staging

This video provides an analysis of the structure of individual acts, important speeches from Richard II, scene by scene, and possible staging that might affect interpretation of the play.

Program #4: *Henry IV, part 1 – Introductory Material

This video provides an introduction to Henry IV, part 1, including overall themes and structure of the play.

Program #5: *Henry IV, part 1 – Structure, Speeches, and Staging

This video provides an analysis of the structure of individual acts, important speeches from Henry IV, part 1, scene by scene, and possible staging that might affect interpretation of the play.

Program #6: *The Merchant of Venice – Introductory Material

This video provides an introduction to The Merchant of Venice, including overall themes and structure of the play.

Program #7: *The Merchant of Venice – Structure, Speeches, and Staging

This video provides an analysis of the structure of individual acts, important speeches from The Merchant of Venice, scene by scene, and possible staging that might affect interpretation of the play.

Program #8: *Twelfth Night or What You Will - Introductory Material

This video provides an introduction to Twelfth Night or What You Will, including overall themes and structure of the play.

Program #9: *Twelfth Night or What You Will – Structure, Speeches, and Staging

This video provides an analysis of the structure of individual acts, important speeches from Twelfth Night or What You Will, scene by scene, and possible staging that might affect interpretation of the play.

Program #10: *The Tragedy of Hamlet - Introductory Material

This video provides an introduction to Hamlet, including overall themes and structure of the play.

Program #11: The Tragedy of Hamlet – Structure, Speeches, and Staging, Acts I–II

This video provides an analysis of the structure of individual acts, important speeches from Hamlet from Act 1 and Act 2, scene by scene, and possible staging that might affect interpretation of the play.

Program #12: The Tragedy of Hamlet – Structure, Speeches, and Staging, Acts III-IV

This video provides an analysis of the structure of individual acts, important speeches from Hamlet from Act 3 and the first half of Act 4, scene by scene, and possible staging that might affect interpretation of the play.

Program #13: The Tragedy of Hamlet – Structure, Speeches, and Staging, Acts IV-V

This video provides an analysis of the structure of individual acts, important speeches from Hamlet from the second half of Act 4 and Act 5, scene by scene, and possible staging that might affect interpretation of the play.

Program #14: The Tragedy of King Lear - Introductory Material

This video provides an introduction to King Lear, including overall themes and structure of the play.

Program #15: The Tragedy of King Lear – Structure, Speeches, and Staging

This video provides an analysis of the structure of individual acts, important speeches from King Lear, scene by scene, and possible staging that might affect interpretation of the play.