

Answer to the Crostic Puzzle:

The individual gets from society the best part of himself ... his intellectual and moral culture....

But... society exists and lives only in and through individuals. If the ... beliefs, traditions and aspirations of the group were no longer felt and shared by the individuals, society would die. ---

From The Elementary Forms of Religious Life by Émile Durkheim (1857-1917), written in 1912.

- |                  |                 |                     |
|------------------|-----------------|---------------------|
| A.) tad          | M.) Yours Truly | Y.) gully           |
| B.) hippies      | N.) followed    | Z.) institutions    |
| C.) ethnocentric | O.) Oval Office | AA.) ovation        |
| D.) either       | P.) ravish      | BB.) urban legend   |
| E.) lush         | Q.) Max Weber   | CC.) stratification |
| F.) eight        | R.) studied     | DD.) lights out     |
| G.) mass media   | S.) oils        | EE.) infants        |
| H.) eddies       | T.) function    | FF.) fishtail       |
| I.) nodded       | U.) redden      | GG.) East           |
| J.) The End      | V.) Ella        |                     |
| K.) April        | W.) lobby       |                     |
| L.) rushed       | X.) Ivy         |                     |