Broaden your cultural horizons... in French!

Fall 2009  *  French 215 #71640  *  Tuesdays  *  3:00 pm-5:50 pm

Offered only once a year at Palomar College!

An exciting 3-unit course in French:

~ French and French-speaking artists, writers and musicians

~ International news with a different perspective

~ Francophone literature and cinema from Europe, Canada and Africa

Prerequisite:
French 202 or Instructor’s approval

For more information contact:
odalle@palomar.edu
(858) 361 4527
cmaher@palomar.edu

This is a unique class offered by the Foreign Language Department, where the focus is not so much on grammar but on enjoying and participating in lively conversations about cultural and current topics.

An added feature of this course it that it allows students autonomy and latitude in choosing the direction the class is taking through personal presentations and open debates.