Notes

During COVID-19, the Respiratory Therapy program will accept online science lab courses in meeting course equivalency.

The RT program does not accept 1-semester Anatomy and Physiology (e.g. SWC BIO 190) courses designed for other specialized health programs.

Students are encouraged to meet with Counselors to review program prerequisites and degree requirements.

Students should visit the Respiratory Therapy program website for any questions related to the application and admission to the program.
