

ASL 215 Interpreting III (4)

4 hours lecture

Prerequisite: A minimum grade of 'C' in ASL 211 and ASL 220Recommended preparation: ENG 100Note: May be taken 4 timesTransfer acceptability: CSU

This course is a continuation of Interpreting II. Primary emphasis is placed on the development of simultaneous ASL/English interpreting/transliterating tasks. Further development of language fluency in both American Sign Language (ASL) and English should occur as a result of this course. Development of multi-tasking skills enables students to begin interpreting more complex discourse such as that in a higher register or of substantive cognitive-academic content. Students are expected to have attained a reasonable level of competency in both ASL and English in order to have access to class lectures and participate fully in class discussions and activities, as instruction will occur in both languages.

ASL 216 Interpreting IV (4)

4 hours lecture

Prerequisite: A minimum grade of 'C' in ASL 215Corequisite: ASL 298Recommended preparation: ENG 100Note: May be taken 4 timesTransfer acceptability: CSU

This course is a continuation of Interpreting III. Emphasis is placed on the enhancement of simultaneous ASL/English interpreting of complex discourse through increased fluency, speed and accuracy. Students will improve equivalence between source and target language while performing simultaneous interpreting and/or transliterating tasks. Students are expected to have attained a reasonable level of competency in both ASL and English in order to have access to class lectures and participate fully in class discussions and activities, as instruction will occur in both languages.

ASL 220 Specialized Settings of Interpreting (3)

3 hours lecture

Prerequisite: A minimum grade of 'C' in ASL 206, or concurrent enrollment in ASL 206Transfer acceptability: CSU

This course discusses professional, ethical, technical, and logistical factors involved when interpreting between American Sign Language and spoken English in various settings. Specialized settings introduced in this course include: educational, mental health, legal, medical, social services, business, religious, platform, and performing arts. Telephone, Deaf-blind and oral interpreting will also be discussed. The primary language of instruction will be American Sign Language.

ASL 298 Fieldwork in Interpreting (1.5)

4½ hours laboratory

Prerequisite: A minimum grade of 'C' in ASL 216, or concurrent enrollment in ASL 216Note: May be taken 2 timesTransfer acceptability: CSU

The purpose of this course is for students to apply skills and knowledge gained from previous interpreting coursework to actual interpreting assignments. Students will begin interpreting or transliterating, with appropriate supervision and in appropriate situations, for actual assignments. Students will have opportunities to observe qualified working interpreters in a variety of settings. Community service and classroom seminar discussions on professional, ethical, technical and logistical aspects of interpreting will also be included in course content. Students must demonstrate adequate ASL to English and English to ASL performance on an exit exam.
