HIST 151 History of Latin America from Independence to the Present (3)

3 hours lecture

Transfer acceptability: CSU; UC

A survey of the republics of Latin America since independence that concentrates on the political evolution of these nations and the social and economic institutions that characterize the region. Special attention will be given to the contrast between the urban and rural cultures and economies, as well as the political and economic relations of the region with the world and the United States in particular.

HIST 152 The World War II Generation (3)

3 hours lecture

Transfer acceptability: CSU; UC

Survey of the lives and experiences of the World War II Generation as they relate to four specific areas--the war in both the Pacific and in Europe, the Home Front, and American prisoners of war. Once each area is studied, students will have the opportunity to contrast the knowledge gained through their readings and classroom discussions with the reality of stories that focus on local representatives of the WW II Generation. Whenever possible, this will be done through panel discussion nights when community members of this generation visit the class and engage in a dialogue with students and each other on their war-time experiences.
