PALOMAR COLLEGE PARTICIPATORY GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE UPPER LEVEL (Proposed Fall 2020) Note: All lines have double arrows to indicate that communication always travels in both directions Governing Board Reporting/Representation Relationship ► Representation & Communication Only ► Communication Relationship Only Superintendent/ Possible Joint Committee Connections President President's Advisory Committee GOVERNANCE College Council Community The principal participatory and Faculty Senate Student planning governance body for At-Large ASG Body the College. It provides a forum to review and recommend the direction Inter Club Council and focus of the College, consistent with our Vision, Mission, and Values. PFF, CCE, AA, Employees, Institutional CAST Equity, Education, Infrastructure Effectiveness, Planning and Fiscal Community, and and Student Success Bargaining and Sustainability Communication Council Council Units & Stewardship Council Council Associations Guides policy and planning to maintain excellence Identifies, prioritizes, and advocates for the Takes a comprehensive view Dedicated to cultivating, building, and sustaining a community of equity that creates in all aspects of our instructional and student College's technology and facilities needs of the college with attention support programs with specific attention to and services to ensure that students receive an optimal environment for all students to to the interconnections ensuring that all students receive the opportunities the opportunities and support they need to between institutional planning thrive. The committee pays particular attention and support they need to leverage their specific leverage their specific circumstances into across all divisions, and the to the opportunities inherent in recognizing circumstances into a strong foundation for lifeand cultivating the interconnections between a strong foundation for life-long, resilient opportunities therein. long, resilient learning and career success. learning and career success all our diverse communities. COMMITTEES COMMITTEES COMMITTEES COMMITTEES COMMITTEES OPERATIONA JOINT COMMITTEES