Military Leadership Pathways for Veterans

Credit for Prior Learning (CPL) opportunities*

Your career-level Professional Military Education (PME) could qualify for:
Military Course	Palomar Course Equivalent
Completion of Sergeant School PME or above (resident or seminar); or career-level Navy PME	MIL 100 Foundations of Military Leadership (3 units)
	MIL 101 Military Warfighting Philosophy (3 units)
	MIL 102 Military Leadership: Sustaining the Transformation (3 units)
	MIL 103 Military Leadership: The Small Unit Leader (3 units)

These courses may be applied toward achieving the following certificates/degrees:

- Military Leadership Certificate of Achievement (18 units incl CE100)
- Military Leadership Associate Degree (60 units incl GE)

Your Instructor Development Training could qualify for:
Military Course	Palomar Course Equivalent
Formal School Instructor Course or equivalent	MIL 110 Military Training & Development: Facilitate Learning Experience (3 units)
Curriculum Development Course or equivalent	MIL 111 Military Training & Development: Develop Learning Experience (3 units)

These courses may be applied toward achieving the following certificates/degrees:

- Training and Development Certificate of Achievement (18 units incl CE100)
- Training and Development Associate Degree (60 units incl GE)

If you are a veteran, visit the Palomar.edu/cpl Course List page for a list of qualifying ACE IDs

 Active-duty, career-level Marines may qualify for our Military Leadership Apprenticeship Programs. These apprenticeship programs include additional professional certifications, along with the degrees/certifications listed above.*