

Palomar English Faculty Emeriti Scholarship

$1000 Prize!

Who is eligible: First-generation college students at Palomar.

Qualifications: an English major or someone with a strong interest in the major who plans to transfer to a four-year college/university; a GPA of 3.0 or better; completion of English 100.

Applications Must Include:

1. A short letter of intent, explaining who you are and your qualifications. Make sure you include an email and your student ID so we can contact you (about 500 words).
2. An essay of at least five hundred words in any of the following literary traditions: African American, Asian American, Latinx, Native American, Pacific Islander or LGBTQIA. The essay may cover any literary genre, including the novel, poetry, drama and nonfiction, as well as less traditional literary forms as graphic novels, music, film, performance, and screen.
3. One faculty reference from the Palomar College English Department (contact information only; no recommendation letter is required).

Applications due May 6th, 2022 by midnight

Email kkearney@palomar.edu with application materials or for more information