Q: Where is the Map to find Palomar's buildings and locations?

A: The Map tool is located under the Public Links at the bottom of the Left Navigation.

- 1) Expand Public Links on Left Navigation
- 2) Select the Map link

The screenshot shows the Palomar College website interface. On the left is a dark red navigation menu with the following items: My Information (with a notification badge '5'), My Profile, Manage Guests, Public Links (expanded), Admissions Forms, Campus Location Information, Campus Safety Authority, Commencement Information, Consumer Information, Credit for Prior Learning, Disability Resource Center, Evaluations and Records Office, Information Services Helpdesk, Map (highlighted with a red checkmark), Parking Permit Information, and PRONTO MTS Trip Planner. The main content area is titled 'Map' and contains a search bar and a list of campus locations. A dropdown menu for 'Campus:' is open, showing options: All, Palomar College Camp Pendleton, Palomar College Escondido, Fallbrook Education Center, San Marcos Campus, Off-Site Location, and Rancho Bernardo Education Ctr. A legend explains the location codes: CP=Camp Pendleton, ES = Escondido Center, FB= Fallbrook Ed. Center, SM=San Marcos, OF= Offsite, and RB = Rancho Bernardo Ed. Center. Each location in the list has a 'View' button. Red callout boxes provide instructions: 1) Expand the Public Links tab on the left navigation; 2) You will find our Map feature to navigate campus and locate Palomar Buildings here!; 3) You can Filter by Location or the 2 letter code on the list identifies such as CP=Camp Pendleton, ES = Escondido Center, FB= Fallbrook Ed. Center, SM=San Marcos, OF= Offsite, RB = Rancho Bernardo Ed. Center; 4) Click View to see the location of the specific building.

Q: Where is the Map to find Palomar's buildings and locations?

8) If you selected to allow the system to access your location and you selected "Directions" on the top right of the screen, the following will appear based on the building you selected. Turn-by-turn directions are provided and can be navigated between walking and driving depending on the distance from your location. For this example, I looked up the DA building from my office in the Student Center at the San Marcos Campus.

9) Starting Point if you selected to allow the system to access your location

10) End Point of the building/location you selected to (View)

11) Zoom in button for greater detail
