

NONCREDIT ESL

Noncredit ESL Certificate of Completion

In this program, non-native speakers of English will prepare for employment or to take college classes for credit. This program equips ESL students with the listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills necessary to pursue a career or associate or transfer-degree program.

Palomar's ESL placement process determines a student's first course in the sequence. In order to earn a certificate, students must successfully complete N ESL 904.

PROGRAM COURSES

N ESL 901 Beginning ESL I

N ESL 902 Beginning ESL II or N ESL 972 Basic ESL Skills

N ESL 903 Beginning ESL III
