

ESL Flow Chart

ESL 45 (5 Units)/NESL 945 (Non-credit)
Reading/Writing Essentials I

ESL 105 (6 Units)/NESL 975 (Non-credit)
Accelerated Written Communication I
UC/CSU Elective units

ESL 106 (6 Units)/NESL 976 (Non-credit)
Accelerated Written Communication II
UC/CSU Humanities units

ESL 110 (4 Units)
College Composition
for non-native speakers

OR

ENG 100 (4 Units)
English Composition

UC/CSU Transfer-level composition

NOTES

Please note: The ESL guided self-placement process will help students determine which ESL courses they would like to take. Students may take one or more ESL classes prior to transfer-level composition if they choose. ESL 105, 106, and 110 are all Associate Degree applicable as well as transferable. ESL 106 transfers to CSU/UC as Humanities units, and ESL 105 transfers as elective units. ESL 110 transfers to CSU/UC as transfer-level composition like English 100.

Other non-credit courses for beginning level students are available, as well as ESL courses for students interested in pronunciation, grammar, conversation, career skills, computer skills, etc.

If you have questions, please contact the ESL Department at 760-744-1150 ext. 2272.

ESL Flow Chart

ESL 45 (5 Units)/NESL 945 (Non-credit)
Reading/Writing Essentials I

ESL 105 (6 Units)/NESL 975 (Non-credit)
Accelerated Written Communication I
UC/CSU Elective units

ESL 106 (6 Units)/NESL 976 (Non-credit)
Accelerated Written Communication II
UC/CSU Humanities units

ESL 110 (4 Units)
College Composition
for non-native speakers

OR

ENG 100 (4 Units)
English Composition

UC/CSU Transfer-level composition

NOTES

Please note: The ESL guided self-placement process will help students determine which ESL courses they would like to take. Students may take one or more ESL classes prior to transfer-level composition if they choose. ESL 105, 106, and 110 are all Associate Degree applicable as well as transferable. ESL 106 transfers to CSU/UC as Humanities units, and ESL 105 transfers as elective units. ESL 110 transfers to CSU/UC as transfer-level composition like English 100.

Other non-credit courses for beginning level students are available, as well as ESL courses for students interested in pronunciation, grammar, conversation, career skills, computer skills, etc.

If you have questions, please contact the ESL Department at 760-744-1150 ext. 7808.

ESL Flow Chart

ESL 45 (5 Units)/NESL 945 (Non-credit)
Reading/Writing Essentials I

ESL 105 (6 Units)/NESL 975 (Non-credit)
Accelerated Written Communication I
UC/CSU Elective units

ESL 106 (6 Units)/NESL 976 (Non-credit)
Accelerated Written Communication II
UC/CSU Humanities units

ESL 110 (4 Units)
College Composition
for non-native speakers

OR

ENG 100 (4 Units)
English Composition

UC/CSU Transfer-level composition

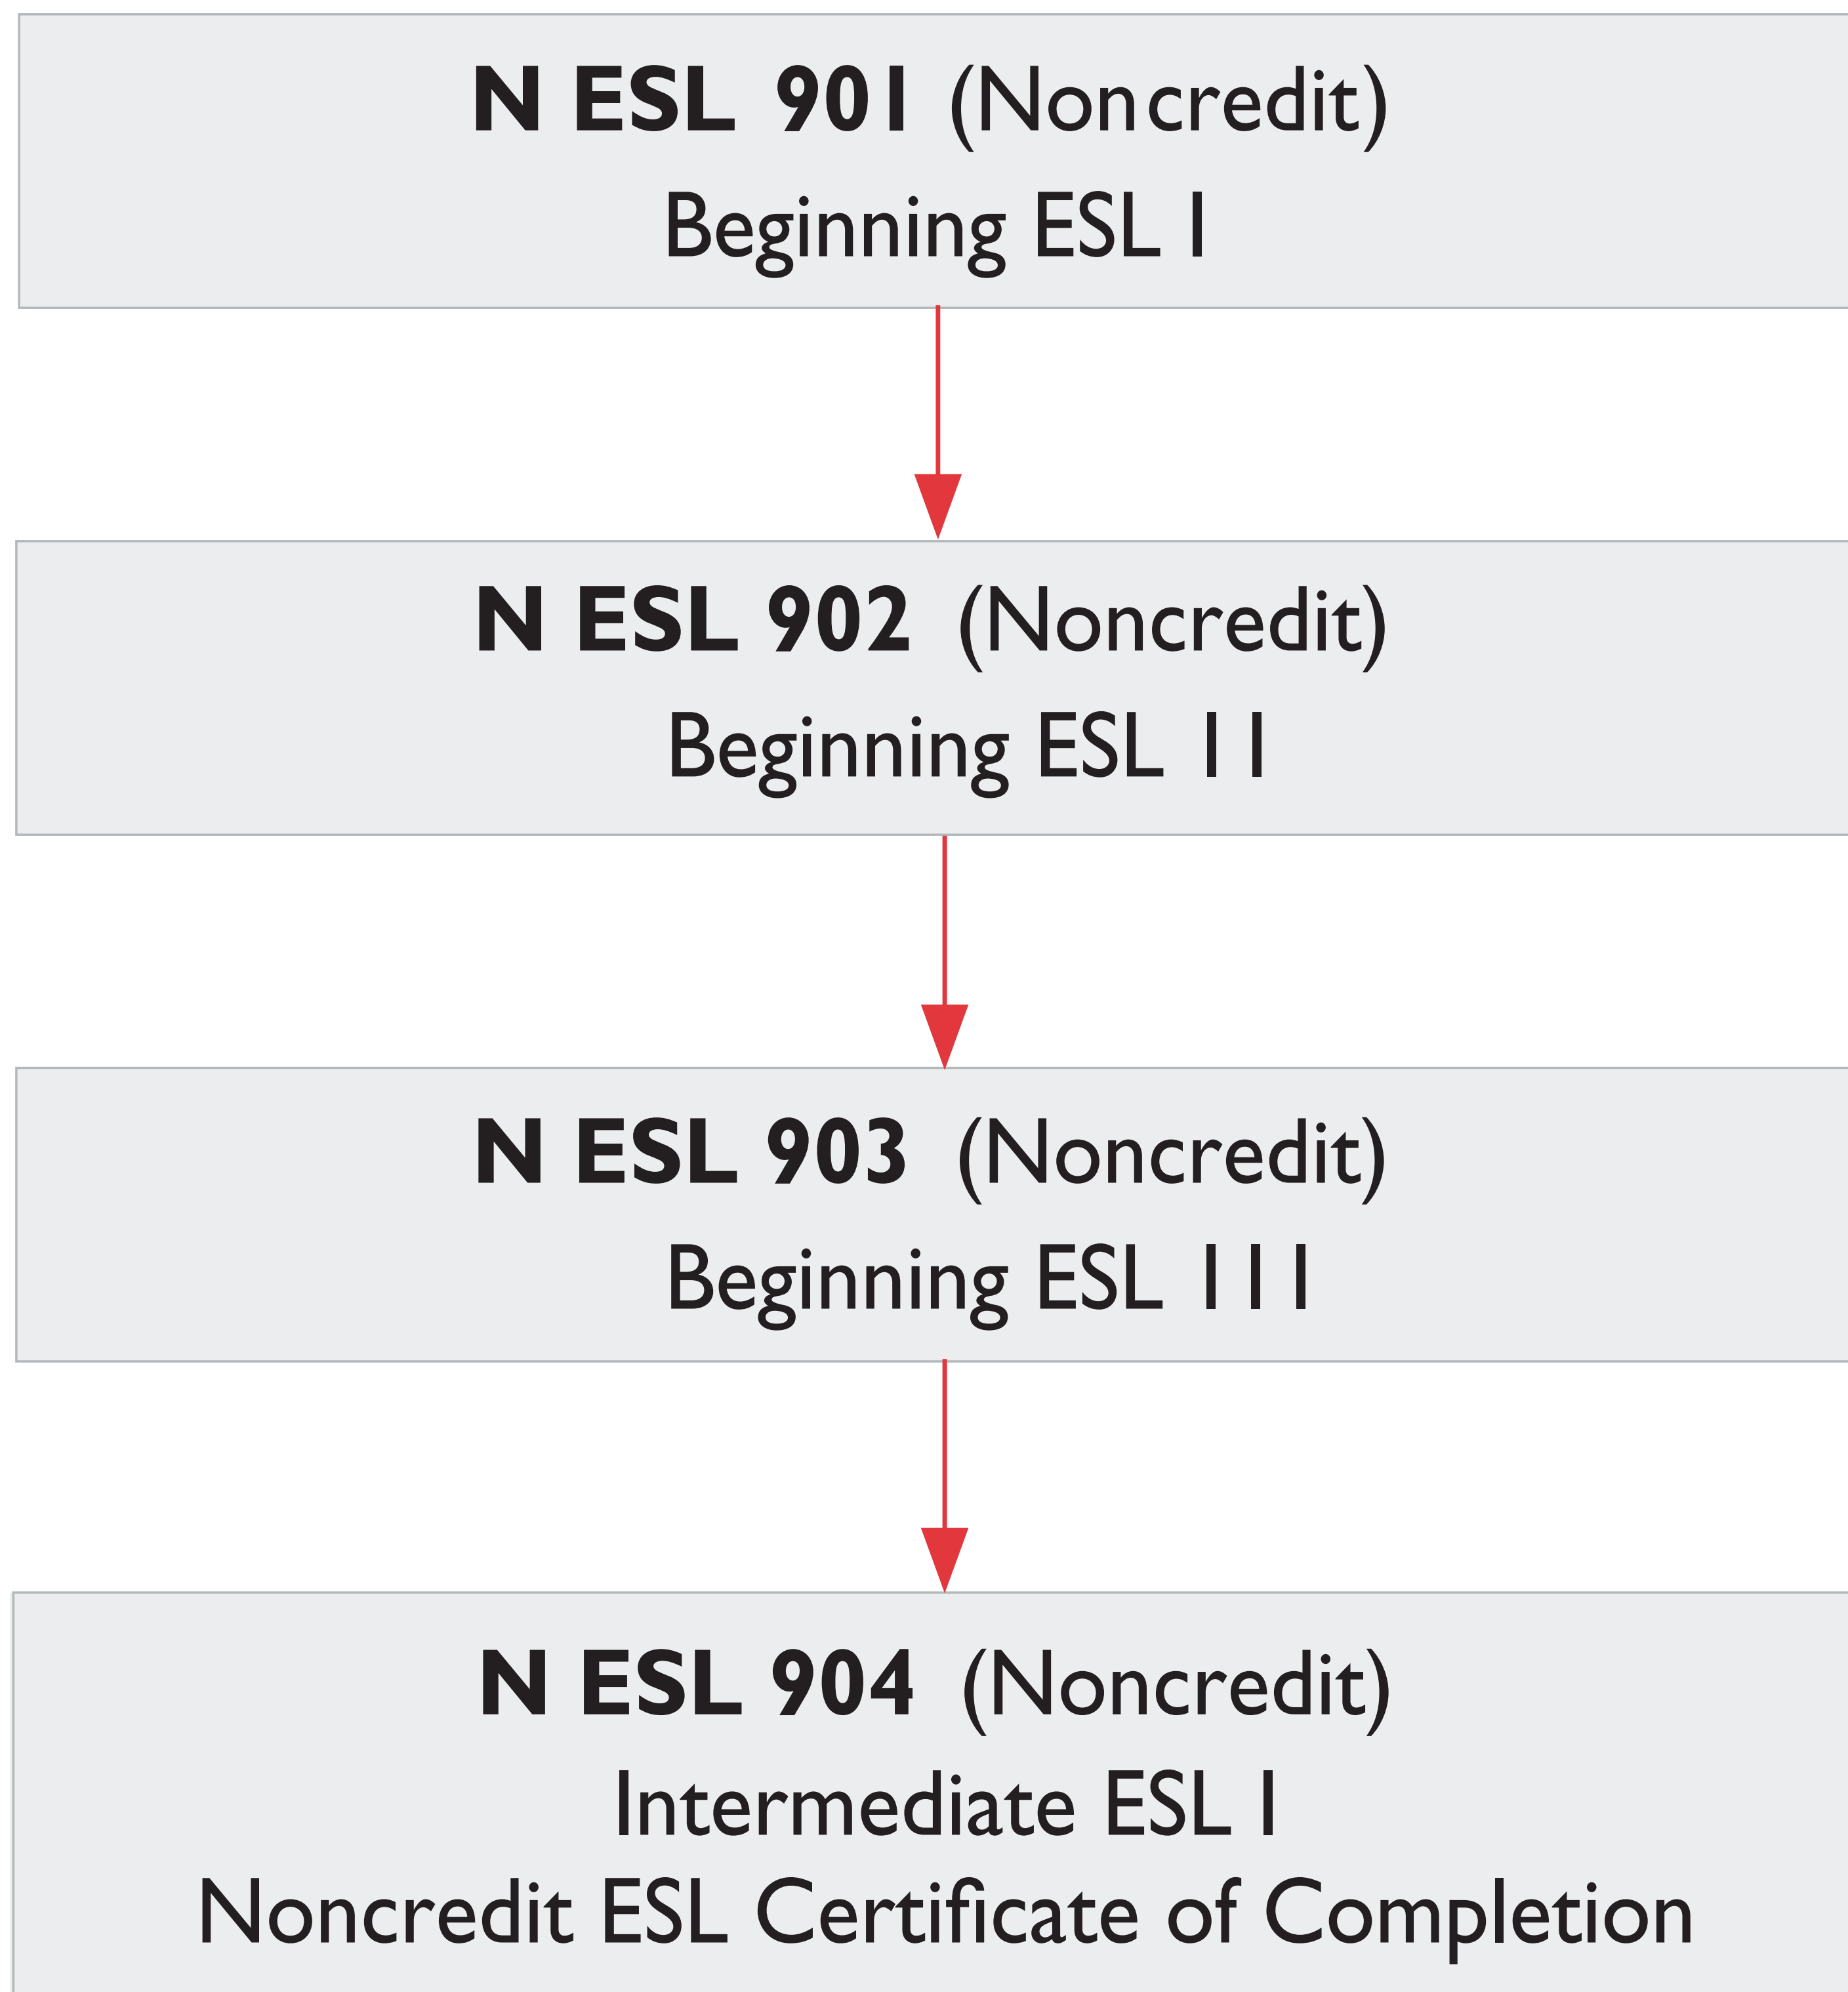

NOTES

Please note: The ESL guided self-placement process will help students determine which ESL courses they would like to take. Students may take one or more ESL classes prior to transfer-level composition if they choose. ESL 105, 106, and 110 are all Associate Degree applicable as well as transferable. ESL 106 transfers to CSU/UC as Humanities units, and ESL 105 transfers as elective units. ESL 110 transfers to CSU/UC as transfer-level composition like English 100.

Other non-credit courses for beginning level students are available, as well as ESL courses for students interested in pronunciation, grammar, conversation, career skills, computer skills, etc.

If you have questions, please contact the ESL Department at 760-744-1150 ext. 8114.

N ESL Flow Chart

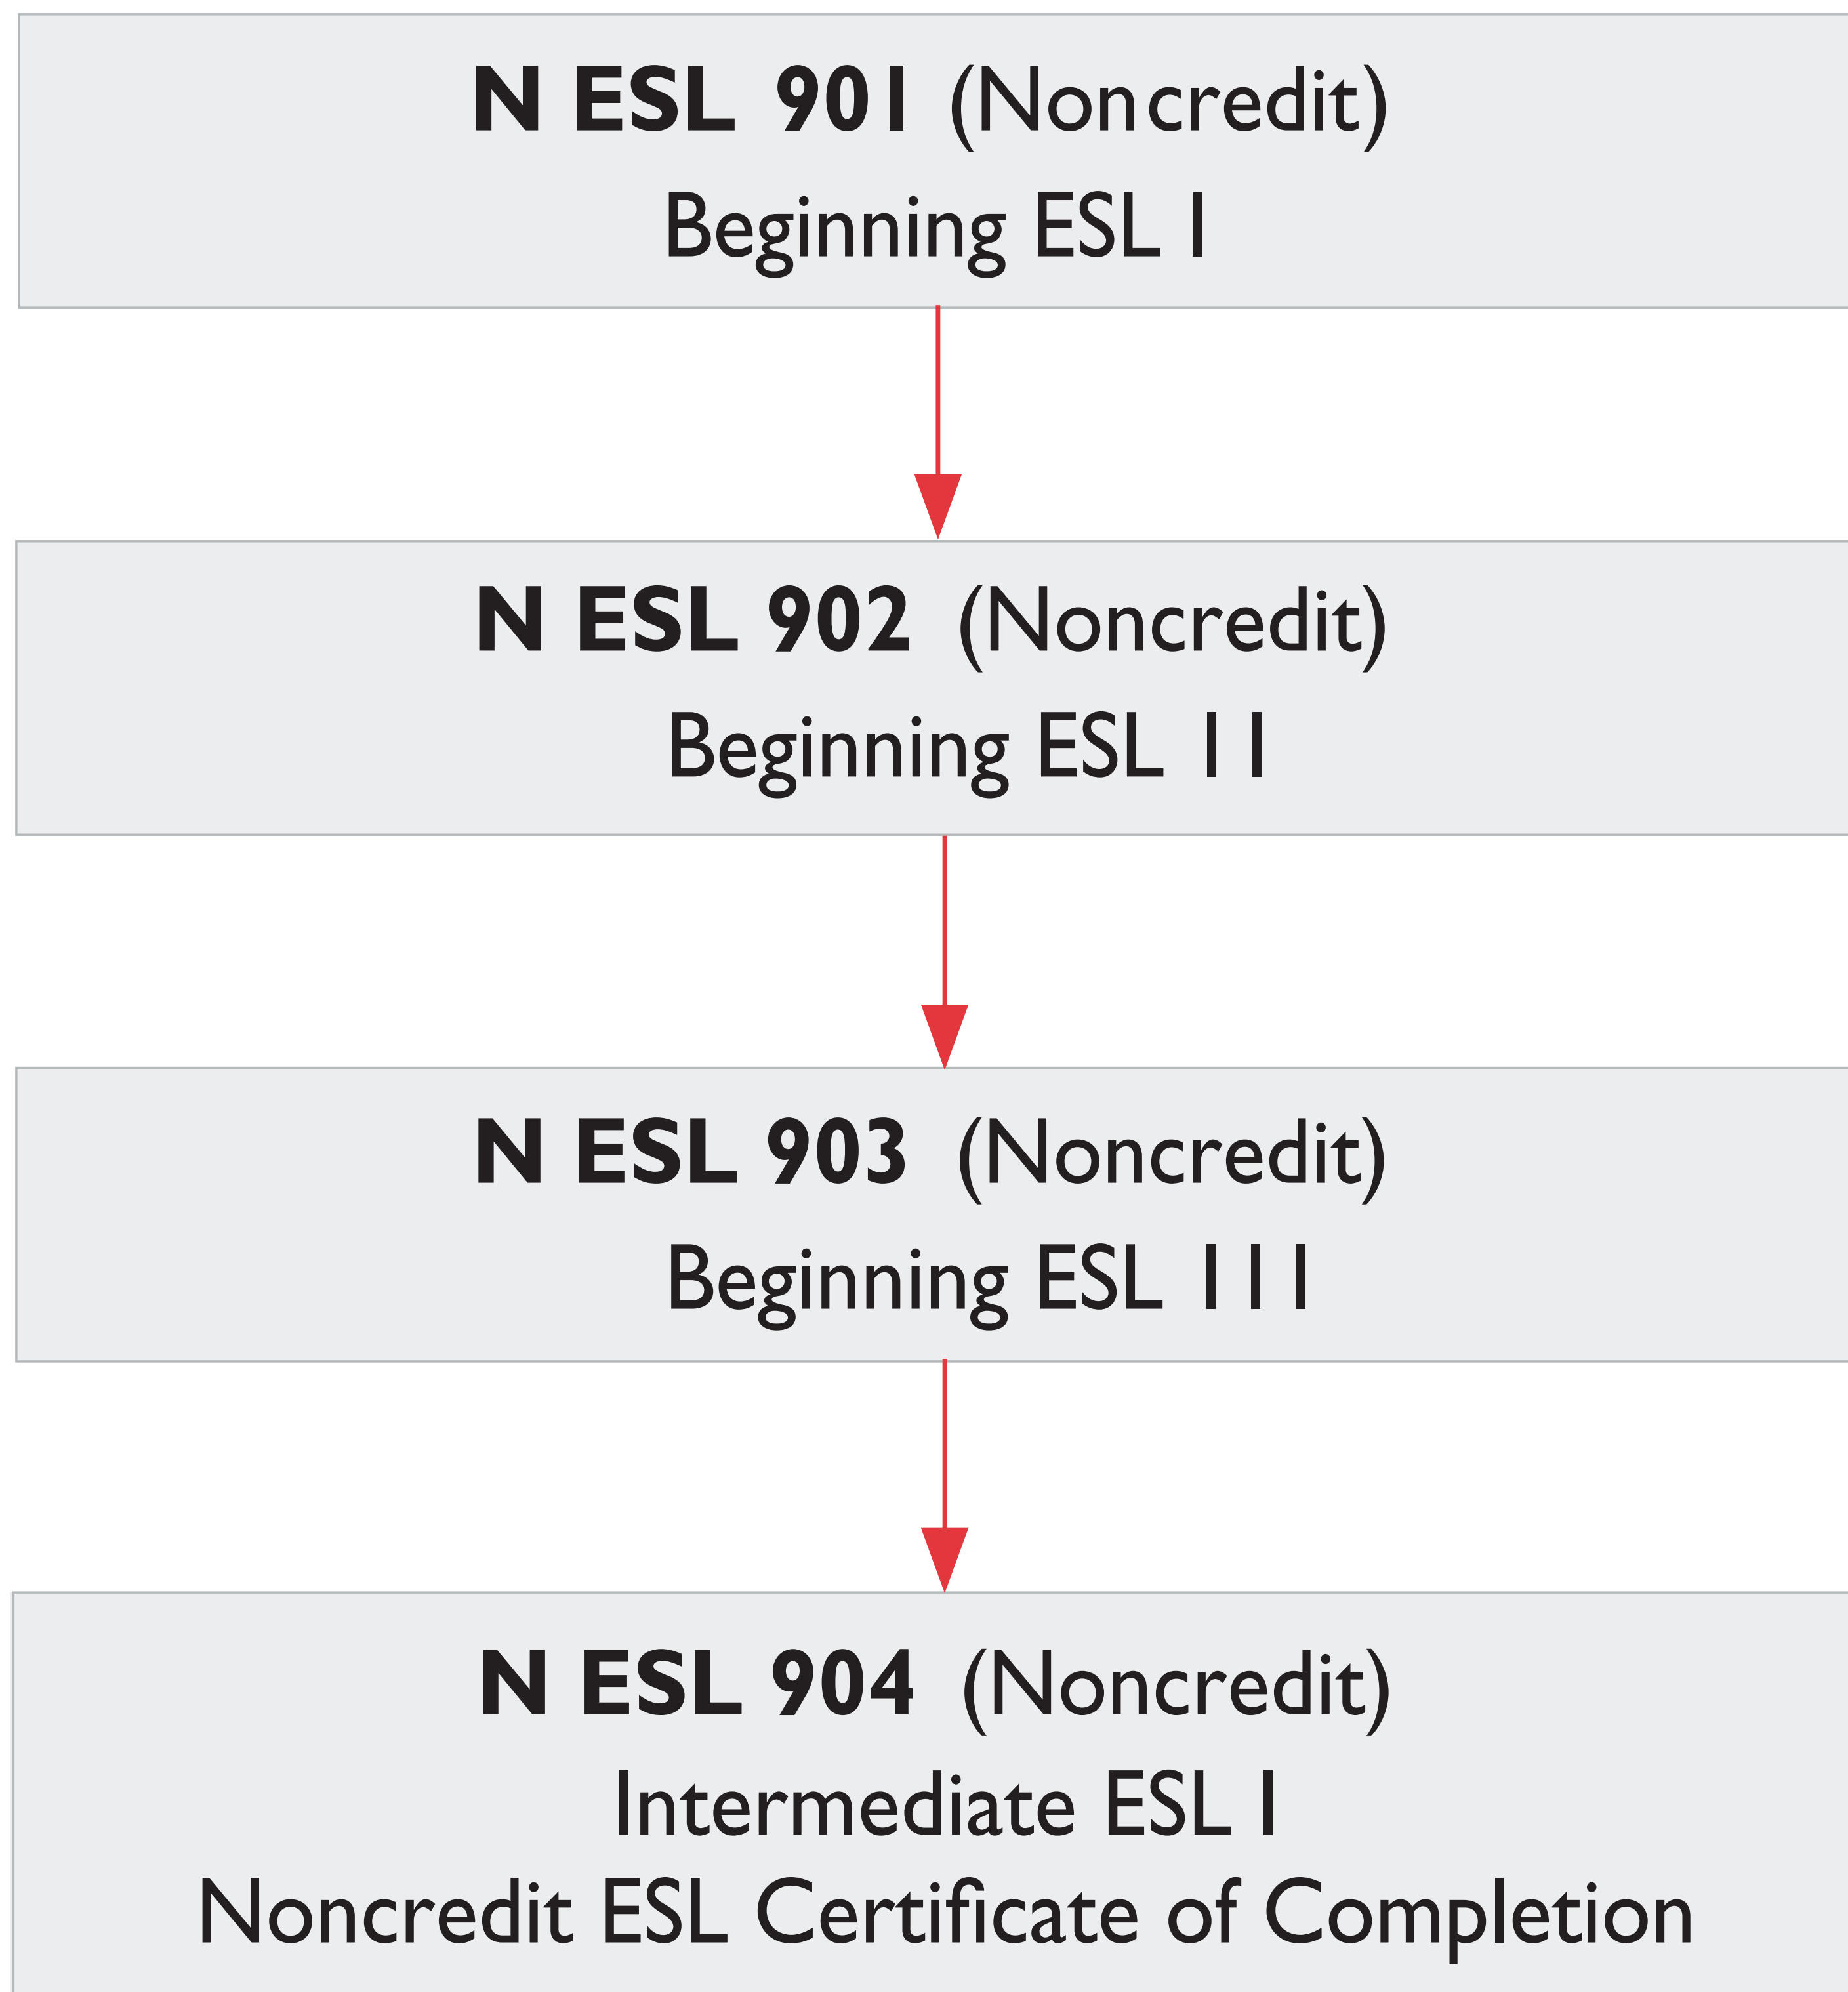

NOTES

Please note: The ESL guided self-placement process will help students decide which noncredit ESL class to take. Other noncredit classes for beginning level students are available including classes in pronunciation, grammar, conversation, career skills, computer skills, and citizenship. Noncredit certificates of completion are available for students completing course sequences in speaking, grammar, conversation, and computer skills.

If you have questions, please contact the ESL Department at 760-744-1150 ext. 2272.

N ESL Flow Chart

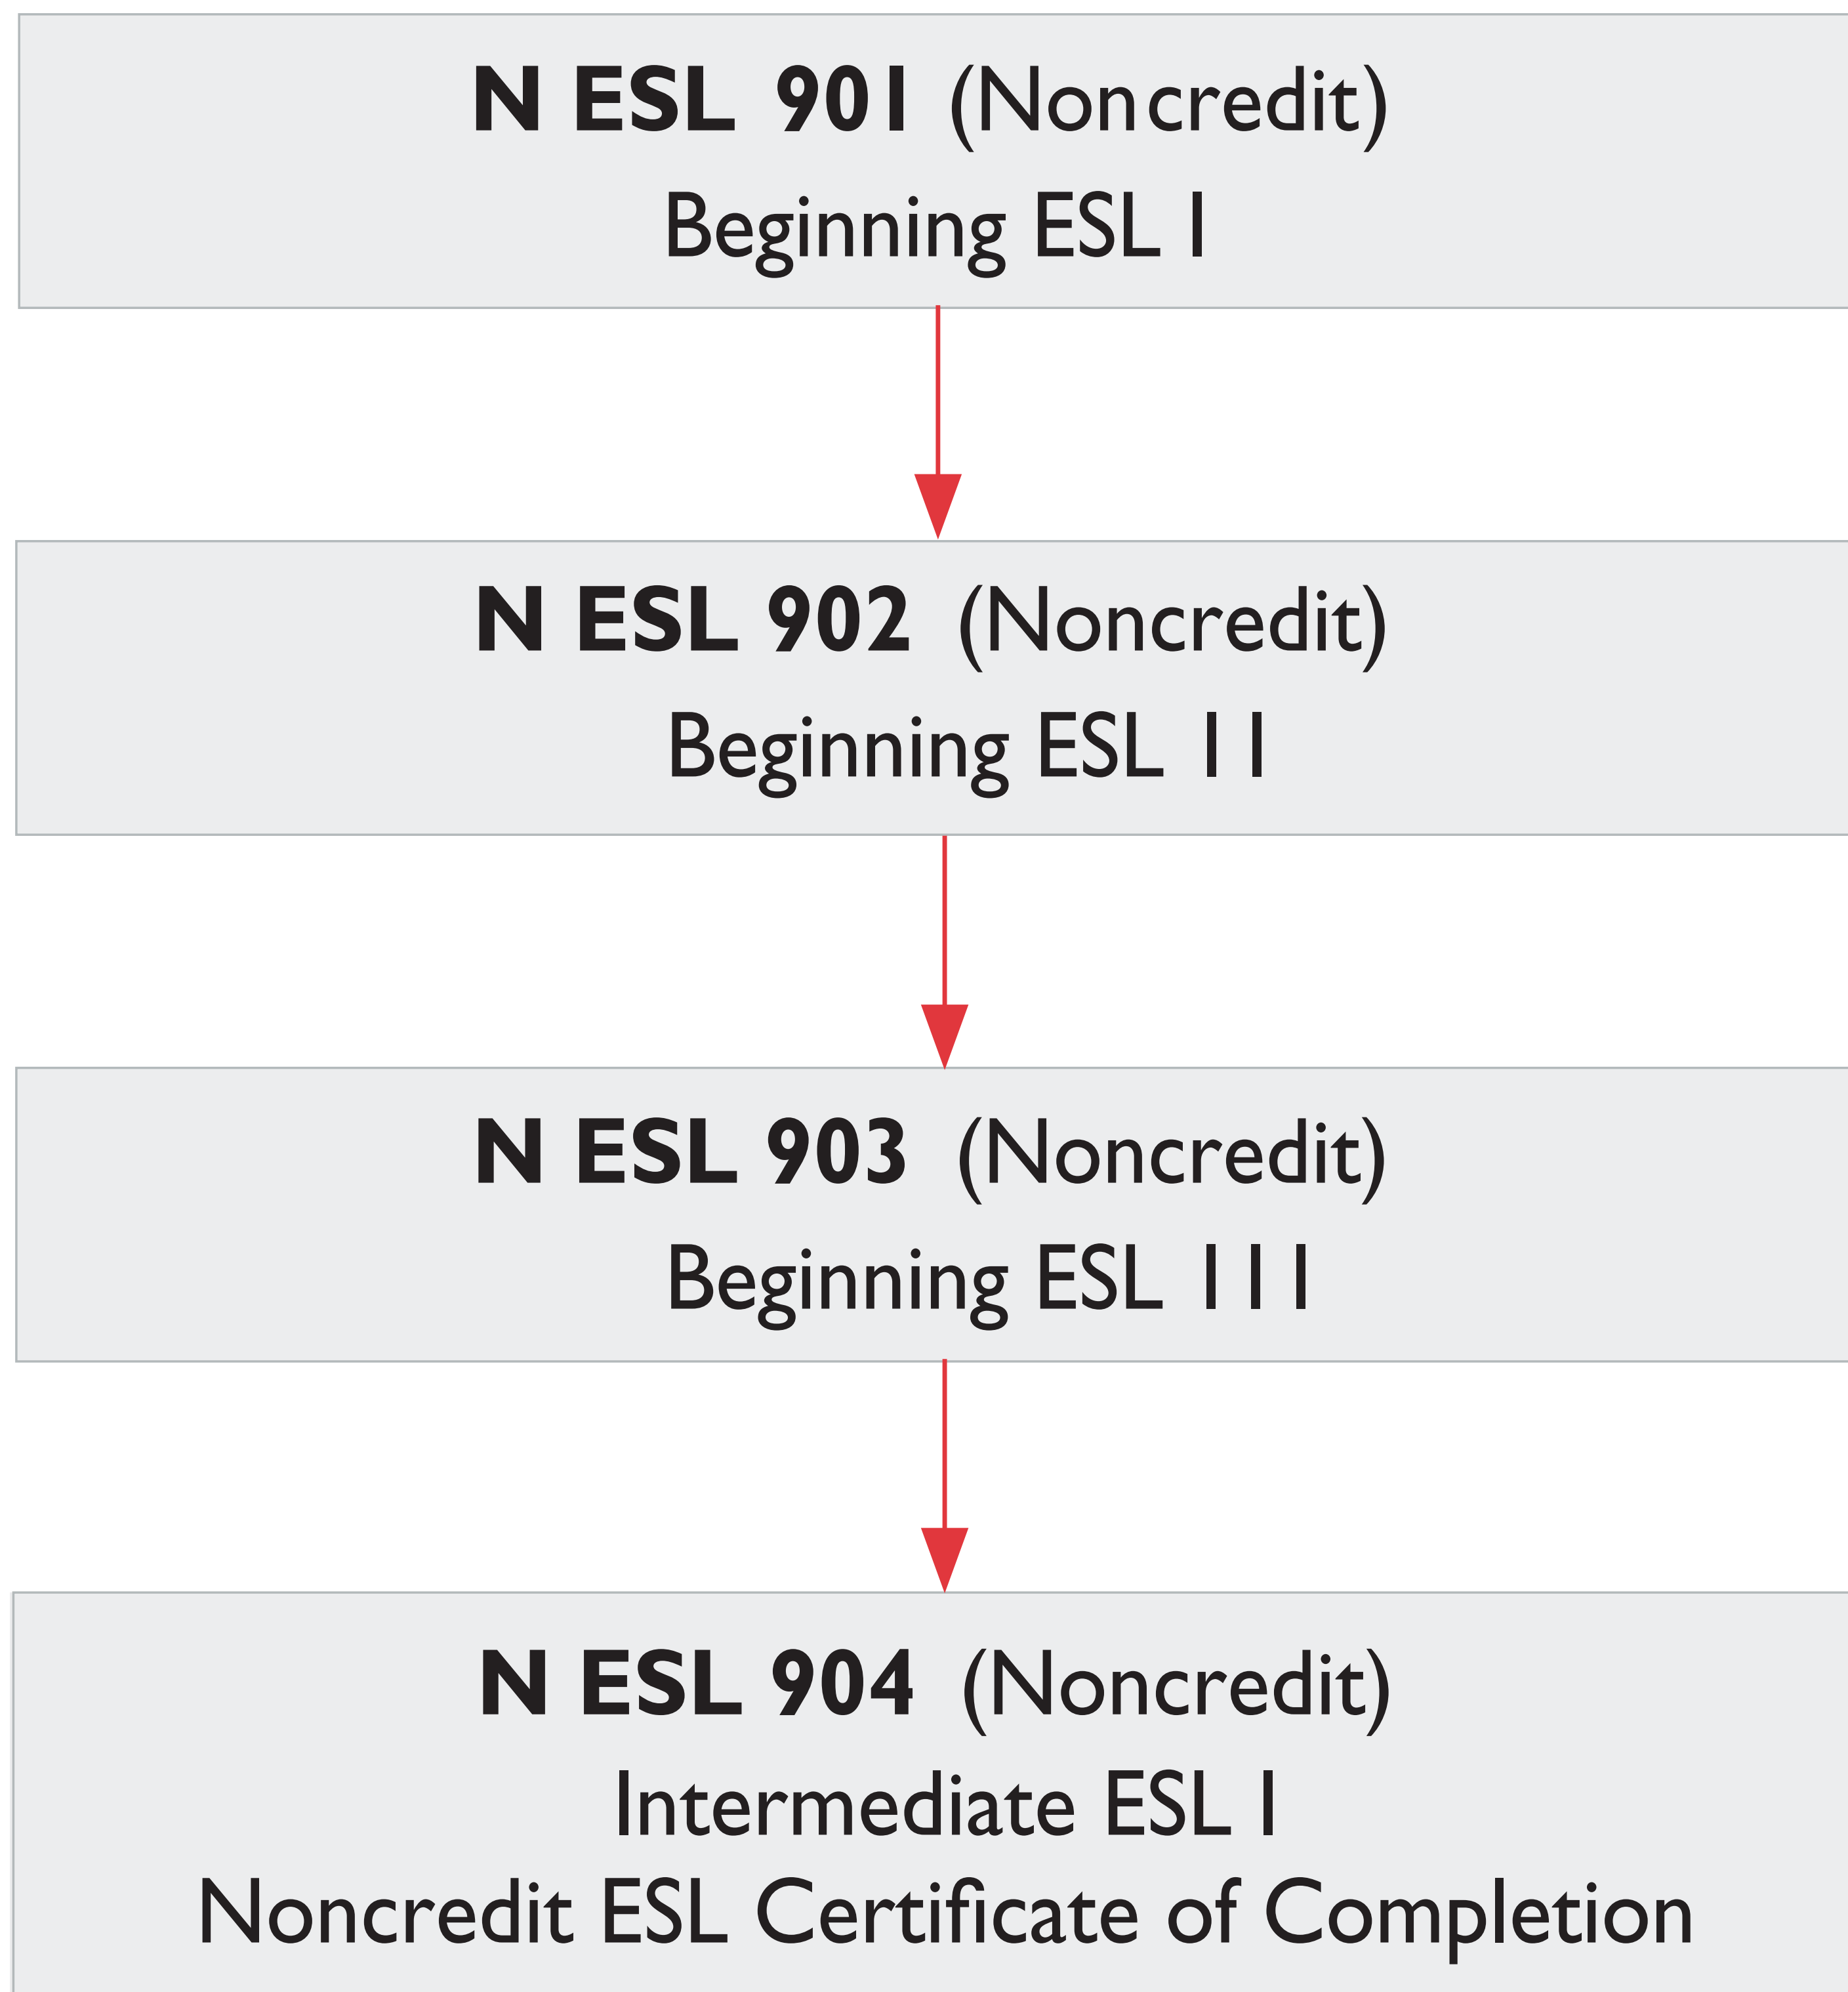

NOTES

Please note: The ESL guided self-placement process will help students decide which noncredit ESL class to take. Other noncredit classes for beginning level students are available including classes in pronunciation, grammar, conversation, career skills, computer skills, and citizenship. Noncredit certificates of completion are available for students completing course sequences in speaking, grammar, conversation, and computer skills.

If you have questions, please contact the ESL Department at 760-744-1150 ext. 7808.

N ESL Flow Chart

NOTES

Please note: The ESL guided self-placement process will help students decide which noncredit ESL class to take. Other noncredit classes for beginning level students are available including classes in pronunciation, grammar, conversation, career skills, computer skills, and citizenship. Noncredit certificates of completion are available for students completing course sequences in speaking, grammar, conversation, and computer skills.

If you have questions, please contact the ESL Department at 760-744-1150 ext. 8114.