Federal and State regulations prohibit colleges from offering distance education to students residing in another state without prior approval from that state. Palomar College does not currently have formal approval from other states (other than Arizona, Alaska, Hawaii, Oklahoma & Texas) to offer distance education to students residing in their respective state.

As a result of Palomar College being in a remote/online learning platform, students who are enrolled and who are residing in another state will not be eligible to remain enrolled or for Financial Aid Disbursements from Palomar College. If you reside in California, please submit this form along with supporting documentation. By signing this form, you are certifying that you reside, for the current semester, within California.

Examples of documents that may be accepted for proof of physical presence in California are:

Current proof of; residential lease or mortgage statement, employment, unemployment benefits, Cash Aid/Snap benefits/Medical, Other legal documents that could prove physical presence.
