Wendy Nelson	AMBA	Media Studies	Director of Business Services	I will use a DEI lens through each step of the hiring process - developing questions, and screening forms, reviewing and selecting candidates for interviews, and throughout committee discussions. I will also approach this work with an open mind viewing all candidates as individuals with unique experiences.	I am committed to using DEI and anti-racist principles in my classes and in all of the activities I am involved with on campus (curriculum, strong workforce, guided pathways, Senate). Over the past 23 years, I have served on numerous hiring committees and I will bring this experience and my commitment to diversity, equity, inclusion and antiracism to the hiring process.
