Whenever an initial collective bargaining proposal is received from an exclusive representative of District employees, or whenever the District's own negotiator presents an initial proposal, the following actions must be taken at public meetings of the Governing Board:

- The exclusive representative or the District must present the initial collective bargaining proposal orally or in writing to the Governing Board at a public meeting.
- Between the initial presentation and subsequent opportunity for public response, all initial collective bargaining proposals will be available for public review in the District's Human Resources Office.
- The public shall have an opportunity to respond to the exclusive representative's or District's initial proposal at a subsequent public Governing Board meeting. The opportunity for public response shall appear on the Governing Board's regular agenda. Public response shall be taken in accordance with the Board's Policies regarding speakers.

- When a request to reopen a collective bargaining agreement, as required by the agreement, is received from an exclusive representative or is made by the District, the public notice procedure outlined in this procedure shall be followed.
