Education Code Sections 76060

The students of the District are authorized to organize a student body association as the Associated Students of the Palomar Community College District. This student body organization is known as the Associated Student Government (ASG).

ASG is recognized as the official voice for the students in District decision-making processes. It may conduct other activities as approved by the Superintendent/President. ASG activities shall not conflict with the authority or responsibility of the Governing Board or its officers or employees.

The ASG shall conduct itself in accordance with state laws and regulations and administrative procedures established by the Superintendent/President.

The ASG shall be granted the use of District premises subject to such administrative procedures as may be established by the Superintendent/President. Such use shall not be construed as transferring ownership or control of the premises.

The ASG Constitution is available in the ASG Office and the Student Life and Leadership Office.

See AP 5400 titled Associated Students Organization.
