SPECIAL REPORT TO THE COMMUNITY

Public comments from the July 11, 2023, Governing Board meeting expressed gratitude to the District for a prompt action in implementing the 8.22% COLA for Classified Employee District salaries. There were concerns regarding custodial wages and safe working conditions. Public comment concluded by thanking all of the employees and public members that attended the Juneteenth event in Oceanside, California.

Board President Rodriguez thanked the District for their continuous hard work during the summer semester.

Trustee Kaiser thanked Dr. Rivera-Lacey for attending the Community Fallbrook Planning meeting and thanked Dean Wyche for a tour within CTEE courses.

Board Vice President Patacsil shared she attended a conference on Student Success and Higher Education from another institution. She attended the monthly SDICCCA Board Alliance meeting on behalf of the Board President Rodriguez. She received a tour of the Pride Center at Palomar College and thanked everyone for their continuous work during the summer semester.

Trustee Schaeg attended the Juneteenth event in Oceanside, California, the Pride Raising Flag Ceremony and the African American Student Graduation.
