SPECIAL REPORT TO THE COMMUNITY

Public comments from the August 8, 2023, Governing Board thanked the Governing Board for improving the custodial working conditions and wages. There were concerns regarding the MOU telecommute for employees and how there was late notice provided by the District due to employees having to work onsite two weeks prior to the fall semester and two weeks after the fall semester begins. Further, there were expressed concerns regarding the 2025-2026 COLA not being guaranteed to the classified employees contract.

Trustee Schaeg shared she attended the Senator Blakespear - Honoring Women Leaders Event on July 31, 2023. She expressed admiration of connecting with non-profit companies and community members by attending the event.

Dr. Trustee Patacsil shared she attended the Senator Blakespear - Honoring Women Leaders Event on July 31, 2023. She also attended the San Diego Pride Parade. She thanked Carmelino Cruz for serving as the Acting Chief Diversity Officer. She concluding her report by noting she will be reviewing the Board of Governor's PowerPoint from July 20, 2023, related to a roadmap for 2030.

Trustee Rains shared she completed the Community College League of California Excellence Trusteeship Program.

Trustee Kaiser shared she was working remotely from Minnesota as her family welcomed a new grandchild.

Board President Rodriguez reported he attended the Palomar College Paramedic Graduation for cohort 60. He will be attending a legislative website on August 15, 2023.
