

PALOMAR COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT

August 25, 2020

SPECIAL REPORT TO THE COMMUNITY

Public comment included the topic of future projects for Prop M funding.

President Hensch expressed her gratitude for the continued work and dedication of faculty and staff during this unprecedented time. She recognized faculty for their strong dedication to moving to an online course delivery environment. Trustee Hensch also stated her appreciation for the work being done to develop an antiracist culture at Palomar College.

Vice President Nina Deerfield provided an update on the meetings and sessions she has attended including the USC California Community College Equity Leadership Alliance, a virtual Pride event, a healing circle hosted by Palomar College and the Women's Caucus of California Community Colleges. Trustee Deerfield also attended the annual "Meet Your Elected Officials" event hosted by the San Marcos Chamber of Commerce.

Secretary Norma Miyamoto expressed her appreciation for the work being done to determine the funding of the final Prop M projects. She wished Trustee Deerfield well in her upcoming election. Trustee Miyamoto also stated her appreciation for staff and faculty as they welcome students to the fall semester.

Trustee Evilsizer provided an update on two ad-hoc committees, one regarding the antiracism policy and the second on local advocacy.

Trustee Halcón did not provide a report.

Student Trustee Rachel Alcazar expressed her gratitude to retiree Michael Leger and discussed a few updates from the Region X workshop. At the workshop the legislative process was discussed and it was informative and useful to the work of the student trustee.

Acting Superintendent/President Dr. Jack Kahn recognized his colleagues for their progress of addressing the FCMAT recommendations, while constantly pivoting around guidelines and public health orders associated with COVID-19. He stated his appreciation for the extraordinary work being done on campus to establish an antiracist framework for the College. Dr. Kahn also summarized the recent meetings held with K-12 leaders in the region. He ended his report by thanking the PFF who worked with the Human Resources team to approve a MOU regarding changes to the medical and dental benefit program.
