Job Description: Home Companion (Care Giver)

Hello Students, Possible opportunity to earn Nursing credits..

We are seeking assistance with our Elderly mother who was diagnosed with Dementia 3 Years ago.

The job would entail helping with meal prep, medication reminders. She no longer drives so we would need help with Transportation to Appointments, Grocery store, light housekeeping or taking her to the park on a Beautiful day. Seeking someone with a lot of patience, and would love to hear her stories of her childhood, which she remembers very well, it's her short term memory which is challenged.

She takes care of her own personal needs. Watches TV, likes to eat dinner around 2-3 in the afternoon, typically goes to bed around 6 or 7, depending on the day..

We can discuss hours and rate of pay during our meeting, there is also the option of Room and Board.

If this is something that may interest you, please give me a call.

Thank you,

Becky Ellis
