

Compassionate Caregiver Opportunity

Gain meaningful healthcare experience while making a real difference in someone's life. We are seeking compassionate, dependable caregivers to join our family's care team in Rancho Santa Fe.

About the Position

Our dad is the primary patient and is living with Alzheimer's disease. He thrives with caregivers who are kind, patient, playful, and consistent, and who enjoy building genuine relationships.

Our mom has Parkinson's disease. She is currently physically strong and independent but appreciates occasional assistance around the home.

Schedule

- 12-hour day and night shifts
- Flexible scheduling
- Potential live-in and/or overnight accommodations for the right candidate

We're Looking For

- Dedicated and dependable
- Organized and proactive
- Compassionate and patient
- Eager to learn and help
- Comfortable working as part of a supportive family team

Great Opportunity For

- Nursing students
- Pre-PA or pre-med students
- Occupational or Physical Therapy students
- Anyone pursuing a healthcare career

If you're seeking meaningful caregiving experience, genuine connection, and valuable healthcare exposure, we'd love to hear from you.

Competitive pay based on experience.
