Name _
Date

A. Complete the following sentences with one of the following verbs creating a passive voice and using the correct "BE" form and past participle.

Absorb / fly / guide / cherish / drive / cherish / apprehend / allow / deduct / make

Example: Cell phones are allowed in the classrooms provided the teacher gives the students permission.

- 1. If students turns in an assignment late, his homework points are deducted by the teacher.
- 2. When the storm is bad, fishing is not allowed on the pier.
- 3. People who bring guns or weapons through the airport security are apprehended by the security officers.
- 4. When you travel to different countries, passports are checked at all international airports.
- 5. Diamonds are cherished by women around the world for their beauty and elegance as the hardest stone on earth.
- 6. My mother prefers to be driven because she has vision problems.
- 7. After two weeks of deliberation, a decision was made on the child abuse case.
- 8. Blind people are often guided by seeing-eye dogs that help them guide their way.
- 9. Drones are flown by pilots who are trained and licensed to fly small pilotless aircrafts.
- 10. The morning due or water is absorbed by plants early in the morning.
- B. Read the sentence and write another sentence with the same meaning using the passive voice.

Example: The engineering students of MIT had designed a new circuit for the new TESLA car. A new circuit for the new TESLA car had been designed by the engineering students of MIT.

I.	Students	snould	prepai	re for	all	tests	to	earn	good	grade	S.
----	----------	--------	--------	--------	-----	-------	----	------	------	-------	----

All tests
2. The school district had to close all the schools in the district due to the wildfire.
All the schools in the district
3. Cyber thieves had stolen the identities of over a million people who purchased at Target stores.

4. A car bomb have killed over a dozen people at the Kabul airport.

The identities of over a million people _____

5.	Microsoft has to develop a faster, reliable, and infected free Windows program for PC users.
6.	The Khmer Rouge regime had killed close to 2 million Cambodians and thousands of Vietnamese from 1975 – 1979.
7.	Mueller's investigation of a possible collusion of Trump with the Russians in the 2016 presidential election have seriously divided the nation.
8.	Einstein's Theory of Relativity have opened up new theories of Black Holes and String Theory to explain the universe.
9.	The invention of the cell phone has changed the behavior and the dependency of young kids to cell phone use.
10	D. Learning how to cook can help the survival of people and their social interaction with others.