I. CALL TO ORDER/INTRODUCTION

Co-Chairperson Yvette Maynard will be facilitating the meeting.

DISCUSSION ITEM(S)- OLD BUSINESS

1. CHIEF MOORE: body worn cameras-Sgt. Montes looking into quotes for police officers to have access to and wear them as part of the uniform along with some Community Service officers.

DISCUSSION ITEM(S) - NEW BUSINESS

1. CHIEF MOORE: Shares update on the deputy and officer involved shooting incident February 18, 2026.

Military weapon presented to the Governing Board last year to establish policy. Report any usage, provide an informational item to the board.

Blue phones-better camera perspectives (replacing cameras for updated ones) instead of replacing them

LISA CASAS: shares that she noticed cameras being worked on with blue phones, Chief Moore will have Sgt, Montes follow up.
2. GI WILSON: shares that training has been done along with Chief Moore and requests to create awareness for others to attend DHS training/concerning behaviors and targeted violence.
3. YVETTE MAYNARD: asks that is the quick overview
4. GI WILSON: goes through a pathway
5. CHIEF MOORE: may be able to present a few slideshows for next meeting regarding awareness. Safety Assessment of your workplace can be requested through forms.
6. WILLIAM "SKIP" CLARK: requests to elaborate text message regarding a possible drone attack.
7. CHIEF MOORE: nothing of substantiation
8. RYAN WILLIAMS: added construction cameras (6) at Fallbrook campus and wanted to make aware of these additions to Campus Police. Working closely with the Environmental Health and Safety are updated safety protocols.
9. ANDREW MERTIG: has noticed an increase in police presence at the Rancho Bernardo Center.
