

Milstein Family Psychology Scholarships

Supporting Academic Excellence at Palomar College for Over 20 Years!

“Although I never practiced clinical psychology, there can be no doubt that my academic background in psychology directly enhanced my abilities to practice law.”

Louis Milstein J.D., Ph.D.

Milstein Family Philanthropic Psi Beta Honors Psychology Scholarship

One applicant will be selected to receive a $1500 scholarship

Milstein-Davis Psi Beta ‘Psychology Means Success’ Honors Scholarship

Two applicants will each be awarded a $500 scholarship

Award Requirements

- Psi Beta member and attends at least 1 Psi Beta event each semester
- 3.25 minimum GPA
- 12+ college units completed
- Completed at least 1 psychology class

To Apply: Complete the information below and submit this form along with

- An unofficial transcript
- A typed essay addressing your current engagement in the field of psychology and your plans to use psychology in your future career (up to 2 pages, double spaced). In addition to content, essays will be evaluated for style and writing skills.

Name: _____
LAST FIRST MIDDLE

Current Address: _____

Phone Number: () _____ Email Address: _____@student.palomar.edu

Student I.D.: _____ Cumulative GPA: _____ Major: _____

STUDENT CERTIFICATION - I certify that all information given on this application and other documents is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. The Palomar College Foundation may use the information I have provided for publicity purposes.

Applicant Signature: _____ Date: _____

Applications are to be submitted to Sheri Frankfurth in MD-241 no later than March 12, 2020 at 3:00p.m. Only completed applications will be considered.