ENGLISH

Any student wishing to earn an A.A. degree must complete English 100 with a grade of 'C' or better. Multiple Measures will indicate whether the student is eligible for: English 100W (ENG 100 plus English 49, taken at the same time); ENG 100; or ENG 202 or 203. For more information about recommended placement in English Composition courses, please contact the Assessment Center, 760-744-1150, ext. 2476. Please note: Students whose first language is not English may want to register for ESL instruction prior to taking English 100 or English 100W. The ESL placement process will determine which ESL classes are appropriate. Students may take one or more classes prior to English 100 including transferrable ESL courses such as ESL 101-103, and accelerated courses ESL 105 and 106. Non-resident international students may be required to take one or more of these English as a Second Language courses. Please contact the ESL Department at 760-744-1150, ext. 2280.

Students interested in a Directed Studies class should contact the Department.

PHILOSOPHY

The Philosophy program recently revised and re-numbered its course offerings to be consistent with the state's Associate Degree for Transfer (AA-T) curriculum. Philosophy courses listed reflect those changes to better support students' transfer needs. For more information about philosophy courses and how they meet transfer requirements for the UC and CSU systems, please see this webpage: <http://www2.palomar.edu/pages/philosophy/courses/>

For specific questions, or if you are interested in a Directed Studies class, email Professor R. Dillon Emerick at remerick@palomar.edu

PSYCHOLOGY

Advisor: M. Dudley, mdudley@palomar.edu

For ALL psychology classes with prerequisites (PSYC 205, PSYC 210, PSYC 225, and PSYC 230):

The psychology department is now enforcing prerequisites for all psychology courses with prerequisites. If you took the prerequisite course at another institution, and have not updated your information with Palomar College, you may be blocked from enrollment or asked to provide transcripts verifying completion of that course on the first day of classes. Students not meeting the prerequisites will be dropped from the class.

For further information see this webpage:

<http://www2.palomar.edu/pages/psychology/>

For specific questions about prerequisites, email Professor Netta Schroer at nschroer@palomar.edu
