<http://www.jasandiego.org>

Contact: Kerri de Jager (619) 906-4940 kdejager@jasandiego.org

Junior Achievement of San Diego County has provided life-changing programs to more than 730,000 youth—in the classroom and after school—to foster an understanding of how the “real world” works. To ensure youth are prepared for their future, JA teaches them how to get a job, start a business and how to manage money.

Volunteer Opportunities:

Weekdays during school hours, typically between 8am-2pm. Volunteer in a classroom, K-12th grade, in a North County Coastal school to teach students about finding a job, starting a business and how to manage money. Volunteers are provided with a training and the curriculum kit prior to volunteering.

There are two ways to volunteer with JA:

JA Day: All sessions of the curriculum will be taught on one day. This is usually about a 4hr commitment.

JA Traditional: One session will be taught for one hour, once a week until all sessions are completed. (Ex: For Elementary Schools, there are 5 sessions, so the commitment would be one hour a week for five weeks)

See available dates and times at <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/4090e48aca92ca4f58-north>

Procedure:

1. Contact Kerri de Jager, Education Manager for North County Coastal via phone (619-906-4940) or email (kdejager@jasandiego.org) to be paired with a classroom.
2. Complete a volunteer participation form
3. Participate in a one hour required training
4. A curriculum kit & details about which school you will be volunteering at and on which date will be provided to you.

Junior Achievement

4756 Mission Gorge Place San Diego 92120

<http://www.jasandiego.org>

Contact: Kerri de Jager (619) 906-4940 kdejager@jasandiego.org

Junior Achievement of San Diego County has provided life-changing programs to more than 730,000 youth—in the classroom and after school—to foster an understanding of how the “real world” works. To ensure youth are prepared for their future, JA teaches them how to get a job, start a business and how to manage money.

Volunteer Opportunities:

Weekdays during school hours, typically between 8am-2pm. Volunteer in a classroom, K-12th grade, in a North County Coastal school to teach students about finding a job, starting a business and how to manage money. Volunteers are provided with a training and the curriculum kit prior to volunteering.

There are two ways to volunteer with JA:

JA Day: All sessions of the curriculum will be taught on one day. This is usually about a 4hr commitment.

JA Traditional: One session will be taught for one hour, once a week until all sessions are completed. (Ex: For Elementary Schools, there are 5 sessions, so the commitment would be one hour a week for five weeks)

See available dates and times at <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/4090e48aca92ca4f58-north>

Procedure:

1. Contact Kerri de Jager, Education Manager for North County Coastal via phone (619-906-4940) or email (kdejager@jasandiego.org) to be paired with a classroom.
2. Complete a volunteer participation form
3. Participate in a one hour required training
4. A curriculum kit & details about which school you will be volunteering at and on which date will be provided to you.

Requirements: All volunteers will need to fill out Palomar’s Hold Harmless Agreement/Waiver of Liability form.

Project R.E.A.C.H.

Project REACH (Recreation, Employee Readiness, Academic Achievement, Communication Skills, Healthy Lifestyles) is an after-school “youth development” program that focuses on academic achievement and prevention education for middle and high school students. REACH sites are located at Rancho Buena Vista High School (Vista), Libby Lake Community Center (Oceanside), and Joe Balderrama Recreation Center (Oceanside). REACH works with students who demonstrate risky behavior, including poor academic achievement, truancy, gang affiliation, or issues with discipline/substance abuse.

Internship information and commitment:

Interns/volunteers help provide academic assistance/tutoring, develop relationships of trust, and serve as role models to help students become goal-oriented, healthy young adults

Applicants must be able to commit to at least 1 semester, 2 days/week (Mon-Fri 2-6pm)

Six applicants will be selected (2 interns per REACH site)

STEP UP Mentoring Program

The STEP UP Mentoring Program is a 3-tier mentoring program that provides youth development programming and local gang prevention resources in order to decrease the number of local youth in- or at-risk of becoming involved with gangs and other risky behaviors. STEP UP Interns become mentors to high school students, and in return, high school students mentor students in middle and elementary school. STEP UP sites are located at Rancho Buena Vista HS, General Murray HS, Vista Innovation and Design Academy, Rancho Minerva MS, and Maryland Elementary.

Internship information and commitment:

Interns/volunteers help deliver life skills lessons, develop relationships of trust, and serve as role models to help students become goal-oriented, healthy young adults

2:1 mentor/mentee ratio

Applicants must be able to commit to at least 1 semester (schedule varies by placement site)

Seven applicants will be selected (5 for high school, 1 for middle school, 1 for elementary school)

Requirements: Volunteers/interns have to be committed with our program for a semester and/or a minimum of 60 hour requirement. All interns/volunteers are subject to a TB skin test, drug test, and live scan.

Contact: Rhea Stumm, Volunteer Services (619) 283-4663 ext. 140

San Diego Habitat for Humanity (SDHFH) brings people together to build homes, communities and hope. SDHFH partners with hard working homeowners to build new homes and repair and rehab existing homes. SDHFH also operates two ReStores.

Email the Service Learning Agreement form to be signed indicating intention to volunteer to rheas@sdhfh.org and it will be returned to you via email. Students will need to attend an orientation before volunteering. Please register and schedule online at <http://sdhfh.volunteerhub.com/>

Opportunities: Build or repair homes in San Diego County on various weekdays or Saturdays, 8:15am -3:30pm. Volunteering on the work site is a fun, hands-on opportunity for individuals and groups to build or repair homes alongside future Habitat homeowners or existing homeowners. Construction volunteers do carpentry, roofing, siding, interior trim, painting, landscaping and more. Volunteers are also needed in the Escondido and Mission Valley ReStores. The ReStores sell donated construction materials and household goods to the general public. Flexible schedule in the ReStores! No experience is required for either volunteer opportunity.

Requirements: All volunteers will need to fill out Palomar’s Hold Harmless Agreement/Waiver of Liability form.
